DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Washington

January 3, 1956

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Many thanks for your letter of December 13 relating to the intelligence aspects of the work of the committee on certain United States aid programs which is under my chairmanship. We are still in the process of planning our work program and procedures, and in connection with any intelligence requirements I shall certainly keep in mind the points covered in your letter.

In line with the division of responsibilities in the intelligence field which you have set forth, I anticipate that most of the requirements of the committee would be developed by the Department's Office of Intelligence Research. I shall, however, keep Mr. Avery informed of the committee's work program and agenda and look to him for any coordinated intelligence support which may prove necessary or desirable.

Sincerely yours,

Robert V. Proshnow
Deputy Under Secretary
for Economic Affairs

The Honorable
Allen W. Dulles,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D. C.
